Programme APPROACH

How classes will be conducted?

Our IAS Foundation Course includes complete syllabus coverage of Prelims cum Mains, Current Affairs and Test Series. Duration of the course will be from the starting date of the batch till Mains Exam. Classes are divided into following three parts:

- Complete syllabus will be covered in approximately 10 Months. We cover one subject at one time or two subjects simultaneously with holistic coverage of Mains and Prelims part of syllabus.
- Separate Prelims Revision Class will be conducted through our specialized course i.e. "Target PT Revision Classes" in which focus is to revise the whole syllabus effectively from Prelims point of view (GS and Current Affairs).
- After Prelims there will be 150 hrs. Mains updation classes where focus is to cover and revise GS Paper 1,2,3 and 4 as well as essay followed by mock test.

How Current Affairs are covered?

Current affairs are covered along with the regular classes by interlinking dynamic and static parts. We cover all the contemporary issues for both prelims and mains. Revision of current affairs will be done before prelims and after prelims for main examination.

What will be the schedule of the tests?

Tests will be conducted into two layers i.e. class test and All India Mock Test for Prelims and Main Examination. During regular classes tests will be conducted according to the Session Plan.

For Preliminary Examination Tests are divided as:

- Sub-sectional Tests based on single Topics
- Sectional Tests based on each subject
- CSAT Tests
- Mock Tests (Full length)

How answer writing will be covered in the course?

Answer Writing plays an important role in the Mains examination. The conceptual base for Mains examination will be laid through the exhaustive classes covering both theoretical as well as contemporary part of the syllabus.

Content + Good Writing Skill = Good Marks

Thus, to develop it Main Examination Tests will be conducted as follows:

- Topic based Tests after completion of Topics (5-10 questions).
- Subject Based Tests (20 Questions each).

Details about All India GS Mains Test Series

Once the content is known through Comprehensive Classes, for the articulation of that knowledge at RIGHT PLACE and in RIGHT FORMAT, the programme will cover the Mains Test Series. It will consist of 31 Tests:

- 18 Sectional Tests - 20 Questions each.
- 8 Mock Tests (full length) - UPSC Pattern
- 5 Contemporary issues-based Tests

Tests include Discussion, Copy Evaluation and Personalized Doubt Clearing Session.

How study materials will be provided?

4 levels of study materials will be provided.

- Basic Syllabus
- Currents Issues related to every section of Syllabus
- Weekly Current Affairs Study Materials
- Answer Writing Practice Workbook for each Session.

Is there any sort of Revision Classes as well?

Yes, once we cover the complete syllabus there will be Prelims Revision Course just before Preliminary Examination and for the Main Examination there will be approx. 150 hours Updation Classes.
