Programme APPROACH

Class Structure

IAS Foundation Course of GS Score will aim at covering complete syllabus comprising of prelims cum mains, current affairs and test series. The course will be having a duration from starting date of the batch till mains exam. Coverage of whole syllabus in the time span of about 10 Months. Coverage of entire syllabus of prelims and mains simultaneously with one or two subjects taught together.

Separate prelims revision class through GS Score's specialized course i.e. "Target PT Revision Classes". The focus of this programme is to revise the entire syllabus effectively from prelims point of view (GS and Current Affairs).

150 hrs. Mains updation classes once prelims exam is over. The focus will be on covering and revision of GS Paper 1, 2, 3 and 4 as well as essay followed by mock test.

Current Affairs

Current affairs will be covered in integrated manner with regular classes by interlinking dynamic and static portions. Along with coverage of contemporary issues, revision of current affairs will be done before prelims and after prelims for main examination.

Study Material

Study materials will be provided in 4 stages:

- Basic syllabus
- Current issues related to every section of syllabus
- Weekly Current Affairs Study Materials
- Answer Writing Practice Workbook for each Section

Answer Writing

Practice is the Key to success in civil service Exam. The more you practice the more are the chances of your success in civil services exam. The content accompanied by good writing skills can fetch you good marks in the main exam. However good writing skill only develop with a lot of practice only. To give you more avenue of practice there will be a topic based test after completion of certain topic. This test will comprise of 5-10 questions. Apart from this there will be subject based tests that will consist of 20 questions in each subject.

Test Series

There will be two layered structure of test: Class Test and All India Mock Test for prelims and main examination. During regular classes tests will be conducted according to the session plan.

Prelims Test Series including 10,000 + MCQs is divided as:

- Sub-sectional Tests based on single Topics
- Sectional Tests based on each subject
- CSAT Tests
- Mock Tests (Full length)

After delivery of content through mains classes there will be a Mains Test series. Mains Test Series will be having 31 Tests comprising of :

- 18 Sectional Tests comprising of 20 Questions each.
- 8 Mock Tests (full length) as per UPSC pattern
- 5 tests based on contemporary issues

Tests will include discussion, copy evaluation and one to one doubt clearing session.

Course Revision

After completion of entire syllabus, there will be Prelims Revision Classes just before preliminary examination. Apart from this there will be about 150 hours' updation classes for main examination.
